What Motivates the Response to Jesus:

1. Demons—Bad Publicity (v. 34)

2. People—Curiosity (vv. 32–34, 37)

3. Disciples—Popularity (vv. 36–37)

In the last two narratives, we see that Jesus' teaching (1) had authority, and (2) was priority. In light of this, His followers ought to be marked by . . .

1. Submission to His Word

2. Articulation of His Word
