

Suggested One-Month Reading Plan

(Average 6-7 pages per day)

Week 1: Monday August 29th - Sunday September 4th

Forward, 1 page

Preface, 3 pages

PART 1: A PERSPECTIVE FOR TODAY

1. God's Healing Promise, 8 pages

PART 2: FAITH HEALING

2. Contemporary Confusion, 13 pages

3. Are Faith Healers for Real?, 18 pages

Week 2: Monday September 5th - Sunday September 11th

4. Understanding Reported Healings, 19 pages

PART 3: GOD'S HEALING MINISTRY

5. Before the Cross, 7 pages

6. Jesus and the Multitudes, 19 pages

7. The Apostolic Legacy, 9 pages

Week 3: Monday September 12th - Sunday September 18th

8. Is There Healing in the Atonement?, 10 pages

9. Is James 5 for Me?, 19 pages

10. Demons and Sickness, 11 pages

Week 4: Monday September 19th - Sunday September 25th

11. Answers to 'What About...?' Questions, 18 pages

12. What About Miracles?, 11 pages

13. God Heals Today!, 9 pages

PART 4: A CHRISTIAN'S RESPONSE TO SICKNESS

14. What About Faith, Prayer and Doctors?, 11 pages

Week 5: Monday September 26th - Sunday October 2nd

15. Joni Eareckson Tada on Sickness, 10 pages

16. On My Back by Divine Design, 13 pages

17. When Suffering Arrives, 14 pages

18. Your Breaking Promise, 8 pages

A Final Word: Your Breaking Ministry, 4 pages

September's book of the month is Richard Mayhue's book, The Healing Promise ($15). In this book, Mayhue examines the claims of the modern healing movement and builds a convincing case that Cessationism, the belief that the miraculous spiritual gifts so prominent during the birth of the church in Acts, have since ceased.