

becoming united in leadership disciplines

Assignment for February 5, 2011

Sunday Service Assignment

- FIRST – Are you involved in a smallgroup at GBC? If not, why? Can we help you find one? Ministry in the body of GBC begins with smallgroup participation!
- Are you currently involved in a ministry connected with our Sunday worship service, children’s ministry (NGM), Frontlines, power point, communion, worship team, set-up/tear-down, etc.? Please list below. If not, is there a ministry that interests you? Why?
- How would you describe the effectiveness of our Sundays as a whole in bringing people into contact with the gospel of Jesus Christ? What changes would you suggest?
- In the ministry you’re involved in, do you see any ways the ministry needs to ‘tighten up’ the way it carries out ministry so that leaders lead more effectively and efficiently?
- How well do you understand what your current role is in your ministry on Sundays? Write out what you think your current role is.
- Do you think you are currently ministering on Sundays where your heart is and where your giftedness lies? Talk to an elder about this. Ask an elder to help you determine where you can best be utilized for God’s glory and the gospel’s sake on Sundays.
- Whom do you see doing more than they probably should do on Sundays? How could they be supported and served?

- What effect does procrastinating in ministry have upon the quality of work given and on co-laborers? In your arena of ministry, on whom do last minute details and needs fall?
- How do you go about finding a substitute for you in your ministry? Do you have to report your substitute to someone? Who? What does your substitute need to know that you instinctively know about your ministry? What does your substitute need to connect with another on so they can fulfill what you instinctively know how to do?
- Areas of need on Sundays that you see: