

Name: _____

Homework due for Saturday, September 22, 2012

D1: the heart - Your time in the Word of God

"You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind."

Matthew 22:37

"For the word of God is living and active, sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing to the division of soul and of spirit, of joints and of marrow, and discerning the thoughts and intentions of the heart."

Hebrews 4:12

Q: What does your current Bible reading practically look like on any given week? Please be specific.

Q: Why do you read your Bible? What is your mind on as you read? What do you hope to accomplish when you walk away from your time in the Word?

Q: What part does prayer currently play within your Bible reading? Are you praying as you read? Or do you pray separately from your Bible reading? Or both?

Q: Have you noticed if your heart grows unaware of God, indifferent or even cold to God as the day goes on? If so, why do you think that happens? What might be a solution to that problem?

Q: How would you like to see your time in the Word improve in the weeks and months to come?

Q: Which Bible reading plan did you pick and why?