

Name: _____

build homework

DUE: April 13, 2013

D1: My heart... His Word (Psalm 119)

- Read Psalm 119:81-88
- Make a list of the synonyms for God's word in 119:81-88. Is there a verse in this section that does NOT mention God's word?
- What verse or verses stand out most to you in this section? Why do they stand out to you?
- Make a list of observations concerning the Psalmists attitude under persecution (119:84-87)?
- What from that list of observations did you need to hear most this week? Why?
- 119:81-82 and 119:88 function something like a bookend around the persecution verses. What do they contribute to right thinking about suffering for Christ's sake?
- Write out a prayer to God from what has impacted you most from this section of Psalm 119.

From the Hermeneutics worksheet discussed in class on 3/30/13:

- Read through "The Presuppositions" on page 1. Look up words that you don't know (like "plenary," "inerrant," etc.)
- What questions would you like answers to from this section?

- Read through the "Two Wrong Ways" to interpret Scripture on pages 2-3.
- Where is "the controlling line of authority" located for interpretation in the allegorical method?

- Where is "the controlling line of authority" located for interpretation in the "what it means to me" method?

- What was most helpful for you from the "Twelve Principles of Interpretation" on pages 3-8? Why?