

Name: _____

The Wisdom in Slowing Down

DUE:

Saturday, November 22, 2014

Proverbs 18:13; 29:20

Q: Why is it so hard sometimes to wait for another to stop talking?

Q: Which comes easier for you - thinking through an issue carefully or just starting to talk?

Q: Why is it wise to slow down in conversations?

Proverbs 18:17.

Q: Is it better to "seem right" or through examination actually be right? :)

Q: Why is it wise to slow down in hearing sides to the story?

Proverbs 19:2.

Q: According to this proverb, what makes us prone to sin? Have you found that to be true by experience?

Proverbs 20:21; 21:5; 28:20, 22.

Q: What different economic or financial situations are in view in these proverbs?

Q: Why is it wise to slow down in money matters?

Proverbs 20:25.

Q: According to this proverb, when is the best time to investigate what a commitment (“vow”) will require?

Q: Why is it wise to slow down in making commitments?

Proverbs 25:8.

Q: Why is it easy to rush into an argument or to rush into making a defense?

Q: Why is it wise to slow down in “arguing our cases” with one another?