Reviewing the 35 imperatives for marriage and practicing D1 in Numbers

DUE:

Saturday, February 7, 2015

As you begin this homework, ask God to help you humble your heart before Him and His Word. Take a few minutes to talk to Him about how your pursuit of Him in His word has gone over the last week or so. As you pray, jot down what ideas come to your mind about your Bible reading (discouragements, encouragements, etc.). Please talk to someone else in your discussion group about anything discouraging. We'd love to help! We're all in the fight together!!

LOOKING BACK...

Review your lesson notes from January 10 ("D2: The Home: Marriage (35 imperatives)"). As you reflect back on that lesson which imperative(s) did you find convicting? Encouraging or helpful? Is there one imperative that stood out to you above the others that you want to work on immediately? Did you have a conversation with your wife about any of it? Can you share part of that?

LOOKING DAY BY DAY...

As you read through your reading plan over the next two weeks, write down in the space below the different character descriptions of God (His attributes) that you come across. Which attribute(s) of God have encouraged you? Why? How do those attributes of God need to intersect your daily living?

LOOKING AHEAD...

In preparation for the Saturday, December 6 lesson (D3 - The Ministry - 1 Thess 1 and 2): Read 1 Thessalonians 1:1-2:12. As you read pick ONE of the following two options: 1.) List all the verses in which Paul refers either to the gospel or to the word of God, OR, 2.) List all the verses in which Paul mentions what his ministry to the Thessalonians looked like.
