

D2: The Home: Marriage

1. The husband is to initiate and maintain love for his wife, in the _____ Christ initiates and maintains love for His Church.

Imperative # 1 Ephesians 5:25

A. You are to love her in the _____ Christ loves the church.

1. By making Christ's example of love your _____ of love.

Imperative # 2 John 15:12

B. You must follow Christ as your role model.

1. Set aside the focus of giving primarily to yourself. You are to turn away from your selfishness, your control & manipulation, self gratification & self absorption.

2. By initiating love for her in the _____ that Christ initiated love for the believer.

Imperative # 3 1 John 4:19

A. You should lead by being an example to your wife and children.

3. By loving and accepting her unconditionally in the _____ Christ loves and accepts the believer without condition.

A. You must give selflessly regardless of her response.

B. You must love her and accept her for who she is rather than demanding that she change to please you.

Imperative # 4 Romans 15:7

4. By dying daily to self-will and seeking God's will in the _____ Christ did as a demonstration of His love and servant's heart.

A. You should die to self-interest and self-protection.

Imperative # 5 2 Corinthians 5:15

B. You are to be willing to lay down your life for her, if called to do so, which is the way Christ demonstrated love for the the believers.

C. You are to love her as much as you love yourself.

Imperative # 6 Matthew 22:39

Imperative # 7 Ephesians 5:28-30

D. You are to focus on her welfare, desires and well-being as much as you focus on your own.

Imperative # 8 Philippians 2:4

E. You are to protect her from hurt and harm as much as you try to protect yourself.

F. You are to treat your wife as you desire to be treated.

Imperative # 9 Matthew 7:12

5. The husband is to be a servant to his wife in the _____ as Christ is to His Church.

A. Your service to your wife is an outflow and an evidence of your love.

B. Biblical leadership is evidenced in service to your wife, family and others.

C. Your attitude is commanded to be the same as Christ's, who humbled Himself, by assuming the role of a slave.

Imperative # 10 Philippians 2:5-8

D. True humility is evidenced in putting the interests and welfare of your wife and family before your own and by giving of yourself regardless of inconvenience or of difficulties involved.

Imperative # 11 Philippians 2:3

6. The husband's _____ command is to love, therefore you must submit yourself to the terms which God defines as love in relationship to your wife.

A. Scripture records God's definition of love and the importance He places on it.

Imperatives # 12, Through # 25 1 Corinthians 13:1-7

You must be patient, You must be kind, You must not be jealous or envious, Do not be boastful, Do not be rude, Do not be self-seeking, Do not be easily angered, You must not keep a record of wrongs, Do not delight in evil, You are to bear all things, You must believe all things, Love hopes all things, Love endures all things.

7. The husband is the head, the leader of his wife and family in the _____ Christ is the head of the Church.

A. you are to lead your wife because this is the position already given to you by God.

B. You lead your wife as Christ leads His Church by being a decision maker to whom she submits.

C. You are to lead is seeking wisdom on decisions through prayer, the Scriptures and wise counsel.

Imperative # 26 James 1:5, Psalm 119:24, Proverbs 19:20

Imperative # 27 Galatians 6:7

REALIZE THAT NO DECISION IS A DECISION

You should not put your wife in a position to be tempted to take over your God-given responsibilities!

8. The husband is to provide for and to protect his wife much in the _____ as Christ provides for and protects His chosen ones.

You must provide and protect your family

Imperative # 28 2 Thessalonians 3:10-13

- A. Making sure all basic needs for physical sustenance, shelter, health, spiritual growth are given to them.
- B. Be a diligent responsible worker.
- C. Adjusting your lifestyle to your income learning to be content.
- D. Not pursuing materialistic goals or lusting for what others have.
- E. Protect your family by not being involved in excessive behaviors work, hobbies.
- F. Protect and teach by exhibiting and being a good role model.
- G. Protect your family by being alert to what is vied on TV, computers. What you hear on radio, reading materials that enter your home.
- H. Being alert to friends and companions.
- I. Protect your family by not enabling or supporting the sin of a family member by ignoring evil influences.
- J. Protecting your family from wrong teaching and doctrines.

9. The husband must provide for her sexual desires in a _____ cherishing way.

Understand God's for intimacy in marriage

Imperative # 29 1 Thessalonians 4:3-8

- A. Understand God's design for intimacy is an act of giving to your wife rather than receiving.
- B. Understand that God's goal is not performance but rather an expression of love is God's goal.
- C. Guard your mind: make purity of thought, attitude and behavior your goal; develop a biblical view of sexuality.
- D. Do not be controlled by sexual lust, which can lead to unreasonable demands on your wife.
- E. Do not be dependent on sex to build your ego.
- F. Do not seek to satisfy your sexual lust through pornography or other people.
- G. Understand that your body belongs to your wife for sexual purposes.
- H. Understand that God does not want you to selfishly deprive your wife.

10. The husband is to be the source of strength and dependability in times of trial much in the _____ that Christ is.

Cast your burdens on the Lord

Imperative # 30 Psalm 55:22, 1 Peter 5:7

- A. To sustain you as the leader in your home.
- B. That you can comfort others in your home. (2 Corinthians 1:4)
- C. Remaining calm trusting God's sufficient grace. (2 Corinthians 12:9)
- D. Role-modeling a thankfulness and contentment. (1 Thessalonians 5:18, Philippians 4:11)
- E. Continue to point your wife to a dependency on God.
- F. Bearing her burdens. (Galatians 6:2)

11. The husband is to take the _____ in developing a mindset that he and his family exist to serve God's eternal purposes.

Be hospitable

Imperative #31 1 Peter 4:9, Romans 12:13

- A. Practice a lifestyle of hospitality by leading, encouraging and supporting your wife in use of your home in ministry.
- B. Model and teach your children about using your home for God's purposes.
- C. You are to partner with your wife in creating a home that is a place of welcoming love.

12. The husband is to _____ his wife and treat her with respect.

A husband must live with his wife in an understanding way

Imperative # 32 1 Peter 3:7

- A. Be sensitive to her—show interest in her opinions and what is what is important to her.
- B. Be compassionate, kind and considerate. (Ephesians 4:32. Colossians 3:12-14)
- C. Do not be threatened by her gifts, holiness or service, but encourage them.
- D. Seek her help and encouragement in areas where you need to grow and/or change.
- E. Be willing to accept admonishment from your wife without being threatened or defensive.
- F. Confess your sins to her and be willing to confess your sins to God with her as a witness. Lead by example! (James 5:16, Philippians 4:9)
- G. Make a habit of seeking forgiveness.
- H. Being understanding by being a good listener.
- I. Be understanding by encouraging her daily. (Hebrews 3:13)
- J. Look for ways to compliment your wife, identifying evidences of God's grace in her.
- K. Frequently tell your wife that you love her tell her why you love her.