build homework

DUE: April 6, 2019

Before you begin your homework, take some time to pray and direct your heart and mind towards God and His Word. Ask God for help in submitting your life and thoughts to His word that you might draw near to Him in this time. Ask Him to increase your desire to know and love and obey Him.

LOOKING BACK...

For Married Men:

Considering the 11 imperatives covered in this study, which three are by God's grace strongest in your life in this season?

Considering the 11 imperatives covered in this study which three do you need greatest growth in? What is your specific plan to grow in these areas?

List 25 things you are thankful for about your wife. Share this list with her. (You do not need to hand this list in for your homework)

Determine 3 ways to demonstrate sacrificial love in a way that would bless your wife and do them this week. (You do not need to list this in your homework)

For Single Men:

Imperatives 1-6 and 10 can all be demonstrated towards anyone. Which three of those imperatives by God's grace are strongest in your life in this season?

Which three of the imperatives (1-6, 10) do you need the most growth in? What is your specific plan to grow in these areas?

What are some practical things you can do to cultivate faithfulness as a man of God so that if the Lord has marriage in your future you are well prepared?

LOOKING DAY BY DAY . . .

In what ways has your time alone with the Lord been a blessing to you in the last couple months? What would you say are some of the benefits of sticking to a Bible reading plan?

LOOKING AHEAD . . .

In preparation for our next lesson (D5 - Hermeneutical Propositions on April 6), think about how important it is to you for your words to be understood with the meaning you intended when you spoke them. Now consider how important it must be for us to understand God's words with the meaning He intended when He gave them to us.
