

Saturday, December 4

Name: _____

build homework

DUE: January 15

Before you begin your homework, take some time to pray and direct your heart and mind towards God and His Word. Ask God for help in submitting your life and thoughts to His word that you might draw near to Him in this time. Ask Him to increase your desire to know and love and obey Him.

LOOKING BACK...

Look back at your notes from December 4 (D2: Leading Our Households in the Management of Resources) and remind yourself of God's heart for the household.

1. Why might you be reluctant to continue to record your income and expenditures to see where you are now?
2. What keeps you from setting goals for your finances?
3. What risk do you take when you set up a plan to achieve your goals?
4. Are you prepared to reexamine your goals periodically and modify them if necessary?

5. Are you willing to take some risks?

LOOKING AHEAD . . .

In preparation for Saturday, January 15 (D2: Biblical Imperatives for Marriage), consider how you think about the singular entity of a married couple. What does Scripture mean when it states that the husband and wife are one? What are some implications of this oneness in areas such as decision making and conflict resolution?
