D3—MINISTRY: WOMEN ENCOURAGING WOMEN—TITUS 2:3-5

DUE:

Saturday, November 23, 2013

Begin your homework by prayerfully reading or singing "Speak, O Lord" from your Wellspring songbook.

LOOKING BACK...

Review your notes from lesson 5, DISCIPLINE 3—MINISTRY: Women Encouraging Women (Titus 2:3-5), November 9, 2013. These verses show us God's design for us as women in the church to help one another grow in godliness.

1. Think about the believing women (both older and younger) in your life. How do these relationships reflect God's heart for our relationships, as seen in Titus 2:3-5? Where is there room for growth, and what role could you play in pursuing that?

2. Which particular virtue in Titus 2:3-5 do you need to cultivate? How does Christ's example in the following passages help you to do that?

Ephesians 4:31-32; 1 Peter 2: 21-3:6; Matthew 11:29; Romans 15:3; 2 Corinthians 8:9, Philippians 2:3-7; Hebrews 12:1-3

How could you encourage another woman with Christ's example?

LOOKING DAY BY DAY...

3. As you are continuing your daily Bible reading, look for at least one passage of Scripture that reveals the spiritual influence a woman had on her home or family. Be ready to share what you learn from her—an example to follow, or a sin to flee.

LOOKING AHEAD...

4. In preparation for lesson 6, DISCIPLINES 2/3—HOME/MINISTRY: Mary and Martha (Luke 10:38-42), read the following passages.

a. Luke 10:38-42

b. John 11:1-John 12:11

For each woman, list at least one thing you notice about her: e.g., personality, relationship/interaction with Jesus, strengths/weaknesses/failings.
