D1—THE HEART: LISTENING TO YOURSELF VS. SHEPHERDING YOUR HEART THROUGHOUT THE DAY

DUE:
Saturday, November 22, 2014

Before you begin your homework, take a few minutes to quiet your heart and pray.

LOOKING BACK...

What was the most helpful thing you learned in the lesson? How will you apply it?

What difference do you see between listening to yourself and shepherding your heart? How does one impact the other?

Evaluate the strengths and weaknesses of your heart shepherding in the following areas:

Time meeting with God in His Word and prayer

The rest of the day

LOOKING DAY BY DAY...

Pray before you read, expressing your love for God, and your desire for Him to reveal more of Himself to you in His Word. You may want to stop while you're reading and pray as well. What will you use from what you are reading to help you shepherd your heart throughout your day? Write about how this is going for you.

LOOKING AHEAD...

In preparation for lesson 6, Mary and Martha (Luke 10:38-42), read the following passages.

Luke 10:38-42

John 11:1-45

John 12:1-8

For each woman, list some things you notice about her. Some ideas might include her interaction with Jesus, her strengths and weaknesses, or what her words and actions reveal about her.
