Lesson 10-Thur.

D1: PROVERBS 4:23

DUE:
Thursday, January 15, 2015

Begin your homework with prayer. Ask the Lord to open your eyes and for His grace to see what you need to see and to change what you need to change.

LOOKING BACK...

Review the lesson on Proverbs 4:23 (December 5, 2013, Guarding the Heart). Identify one thing that impacted you from the lesson. Write it down and explain why you chose it.

After considering the lesson on Proverbs 4:23 ask God to show you what you need to remove from your life that negatively impacts your heart's devotion and what He wants you to put on in its place.

1. List the changes you will implement to help improve your heart's devotion to God.
2. Give some examples of how you guard your heart.

LOOKING DAY BY DAY...

Read Psalm 119:65-80. Observe the Psalmist's pattern of praying and how he shepherds his heart through the following:

1. Write out the repeated words and phrases.
2. List the verses that precede his prayer requests. Make note of any patterns that you see.

3. How does the Psalmist develop and measure his understanding of God and his circumstances, what he values, and how he prays?
4. Write down any observations that challenge you. Ask God to help you orient your thinking and shepherd your heart around His Word.

LOOKING AHEAD...

The next lesson will focus on the home (D-2 THE HOME: A Whole Bible Survey of the Home). In preparation, think about your relationships, both where you live (family, roommates, guests), as well as with family who live outside your home (e.g., grown children, grandchildren, parents, siblings).

Look up and summarize how the following verses relate to the home. Read the verses surrounding these passages to better understand the context:

Deuteronomy 4:9-10

Deuteronomy 6: 1-9

Acts 16:14-15
