D2: - THE HOME: BEARING GOD'S IMAGE IN SINGLENES & MARRIAGE

DUE:

Thursday, February 26, 2015

In this assignment, many of the questions focus on growing as a Christian woman. Rather than repeating a similar answer for each question, you're encouraged to examine the question from different angles (i.e., what you learned in the teaching, what you're reading in the Bible on your own, and what you find in our supplemental resource). Pray and ask the Lord to deepen your understanding of what it means to be a Christian woman as you thoughtfully work your way through each section of the homework.

LOOKING BACK...

1. Review the outline for "D2-The Home: Bearing God's Image in Singleness & Marriage." How was your perspective on being a Christian woman been strengthened or changed?

LOOKING DAY BY DAY...

2. God's design for women has implications for every season of life. Take some time this week and read through the "implications of Gods design for us to bear His image in singleness and marriage" on the separate page of your outline.

How has God used something in this resource to shape your thinking and encourage you in your present season?

How has God used something in this resource to shape your thinking and encourage you to help and encourage others that are NOT in your present season?

How might you view and prepare to bear His image should your season of life change?

LOOKING AHEAD...

3. In preparation for the next lesson, D2/D3- THE HOME/MINISTRY: Peacemaking – Responding to Conflict Biblically:

Read Philippians 4:1-9. List the commands you find in these verses.

Look up (and write out) the dictionary definitions for:

Forgive

Apology

Sorry
