

Name: _____

Lesson 11-Sat.
Saturday, February 21, 2015

D2—THE HOME: BIBLICAL WOMANHOOD

DUE:
Saturday, February 28, 2015

Prayerfully read through Romans 12:1-2. Ask God to help you renew your mind with His word to enable you to recognize where your present attitudes and behaviors are conforming to the world's values and ways for women. Ask God to transform your understanding and practice of biblical womanhood as you thoughtfully work your way through each section of the homework.

LOOKING BACK...

Review the outline for "D2—the Home: Biblical Womanhood." What in this lesson was new, helpful or challenging? Are there ways in which you can encourage other women or girls to better understand and appreciate God's design for them?

LOOKING DAY BY DAY...

From your reading, how has God used something from His Word to help you better understand and practice biblical womanhood?

LOOKING AHEAD...

In preparation for the next lesson, "D2-The Home: Bearing God's Image as a Biblical Woman," read through the resource entitled "Discipline Two: the Home-Women in the Bible" (four pages) found in the "resources" section of your notebook.

Identify and write out something you noticed that is new to you, a good reminder, a surprise, an encouragement, or that caught your attention as you read through this resource.