Lesson 13-Thurs.

D2—THE HOME: A WHOLE BIBLE SURVEY OF THE HOME

DUE:

Thursday, January 28, 2016

Prayerfully read through 1 Corinthians 13:4-7. Consider each of the ways that love is described--what love is and what it isn't, and what love does and doesn't do. Thank God for the many and various ways that He has demonstrated His love toward you, and especially and most fully through the gospel (Romans 5:6-8). Humbly ask God to help you grow your love for Him, for your household and for your neighbor.

LOOKING BACK...

Review your notes from "A Whole Bible Survey of the Home." What impacted you from the lesson?

How are you influencing your home with God's Word?

How does the priority you place on your household relationships align with God's heart for the household, as revealed in His Word?

What from the lesson will help you change or grow in these areas?

LOOKING DAY BY DAY...

Read through the Reading Themes handout you received in class. Which theme most catches your attention? How do you think looking for this theme in your reading could be helpful to you? Be ready to share with your group ways that you might record what you learn if you choose to look for a theme in your reading.

If you choose not to pick a theme, are there other ideas you've tried that help you remember what you've read?

LOOKING AHEAD...

In preparation for Lesson 11, D2—THE HOME: Biblical Womanhood, read Genesis 3. To whom did the woman listen? Whom did she believe and trust? Whom should she have believed and trusted?

January Memory verse for Jerusalem Class

"Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and do not lean on your own understanding."
