D1—THE HEART: GALATIANS 5:22-23

DUE:
Thursday, March 24, 2016

Before you begin your homework, take a few minutes to quiet your heart and pray. Ask God to strengthen you and your commitment to Him.

LOOKING BACK...

1. Review the outline for D1-The Heart: Galatians 5:22-23. Write out Galatians 5:22-23.

2. The believer's life is to be characterized by the fruit of the Spirit. Remember that it is God's will for the believer to be full of the Holy Spirit. Ephesians 5:18. Spend some time in prayer examining your life. If you see areas where you need to confess sin do so remembering 1 John 1:9. If there are areas that need growth, prayerfully ask for the Lord's help. If you see growth, praise and thank God for His work in your life.

3. Review the deeds of the flesh. Prayerfully ask for the Holy Spirit's help. If you see any of these sins currently being manifested in your life, confess your sin and repent. If you are concerned with what you see in your life, commit to talk with your husband, your discussion leader, one of the elders or a trusted friend.

4. Choose one fruit to examine more closely. Look up and list at least 4 verses from the New Testament that mention the fruit you want to examine. Look at the context. List something you learned that impacted you and anything you want to change because of your study.

LOOKING DAY BY DAY...

5. Are there ways in which your time in the Word has improved since Wellspring began in September? For example, nearness to God? ... Understanding? ... Consistency? ... Perseverance? Explain.

If you don't see a lot of improvement, take heart! Pray and ask the Lord for help. Talk with your Wellspring discussion group about changes you will make.

LOOKING AHEAD...

6. In preparation for lesson 15, D3 – MINISTRY: Paul's Example of Ministry (1 Th 1:5-10): Read the book of 1 Thessalonians and list the general topics Paul addresses.

On a separate piece of paper, write out the gospel.

March Memory verse for Jerusalem Class

"Jesus said to him, 'I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me'."

John 14:6

Motions:

I am the way – start with hands by side palms facing each other and move them forward.

And the truth – point finger on one hand, place on lips, and pull away so finger is now pointing out.

And the life – both hands at hip with palms facing body, raise them to shoulders.

No one comes – shake head and wag finger.

To the Father – point to the sky with one hand.

But through Me – tap middle finger on opposite hand, going from one hand to the other.
