Lesson 15

(D1: THE HEART)

TROUBLING AND COMFORTING TRUTHS FOR MY HEART

DUE:

(TO BE USED AS A GUIDELINE FOR GROUP DISCUSSION)

Before you begin your homework, take a few minutes to quiet your heart and pray. Thank God for the gospel and ask Him to give you new eyes to see the riches of the gospel and to grow in your desire to speak these to your own heart and to share them with others.

LOOKING BACK...

Review your notes from the lesson on Troubling and Comforting Truths for My Heart. What troubling truth impacted you?

What comforting truth stood out to you? Take time to praise God for that truth! What kind of residence does Jesus find you to be for Him? Does Jesus find your heart to feel like a hotel room or a home?

LOOKING DAY BY DAY...

Be prepared to share passages that help you rehearse the gospel to yourself. Consider choosing at least one of these to memorize over the next few months.

LOOKING AHEAD...

To prepare for the last lesson, The Danger of Pride and the Hope of the Gospel, look up the following verses and write out your observations regarding pride and humility.

Pride:

Proverbs 8:13

Proverbs 16:18

1 John 2:16

Humility:

Colossians 3:12-14

1 Peter 5:5-7

Wellspring Kids Memory Verse:

Psalm 100

to be memorized by the end of the year.
