

Name: _____

February 24 and 27, 2021

Lesson 12

(D1: THE HEART) SURVEY OF WOMEN IN THE BIBLE

DUE:

Wednesday, March 10 / Saturday, March 13

In Proverbs 31:10-31, King Lemuel opens the section with this question, "An excellent wife, who can find? She is far more precious than jewels. The heart of her husband trusts in her, and he will have no lack of gain. She does him good and not harm all the days of her life." He closes with this summary, "Charm is deceitful and beauty is vain, but a woman who fears the Lord, she shall be praised. Give her of the fruit of her hands, and let her works praise her in the gates." Ask God to help you take to heart and put into practice the helpful principles from the lives of certain women in the Bible.

LOOKING BACK...

Review your notes from the lesson, Survey of Women in the Bible. Note anything that was encouraging or challenging to you.

From among the six women we discussed, choose one quality you would like to grow in. Record it here and tell why. (This can be either an area in which a woman excelled that you would like to emulate, or an area in which a woman faltered that you would like to learn from.)

What are some practical ways you can do this?

LOOKING DAY BY DAY...

How have you been personally encouraged or equipped through your daily time in God's Word?

Look in the resource section of your notebook. Find the last two pages titled "In the Bible, D2: The Home, Women in the Bible." Skim the list and choose one or two passages to look up.

Record the passage you chose. Then record what you saw there about God AND/OR the wisdom or foolishness of the woman in your passage and her response to her circumstances.

LOOKING AHEAD...

In preparation for lesson 6 on Hannah, read through Hannah's prayer in 1 Samuel 2:1-10.

List all the characteristics of God that Hannah mentions in her prayer. Spend time praying, recalling God's characteristics and praising Him. Write out your prayer if that will help you stay focused.

Wellspring Kids Memory Verse:

Matthew 16:15-16

"He said to them, 'But who do you say that I am?'"

Simon Peter replied, 'You are the Christ, the Son of the living God.'"