Lesson 13

(D1: THE HEART) HANNAH AND PRAYER

DUE:

Wednesday, March 24 / Saturday, March 27

Before starting your homework, read Hannah's prayer in 1 Samuel 2:1-10, looking for the attributes of God. Thank God for who He is and ask Him to grow you to be more like Christ.

LOOKING BACK...

Reread Hannah's two prayers: 1 Samuel 1:11-13 and 1 Samuel 2:1-10.
List the similarities and differences that you find between the prayers.

In what ways are your prayers similar to Hannah's?

How does your practice of praying need to change in order to be more God-glorifying?

LOOKING DAY BY DAY...

As you continue your daily Bible reading, look for at least one passage of Scripture that reveals the spiritual influence a woman had on her home or family. Be ready to share what you learn from her – an example to follow or a sin to flee (feel free to use the resource for Women in the Bible from your notebook if you don't see something from your daily reading plan).

LOOKING AHEAD...

In preparation for the next lesson on prayer, read Colossians 1:3-12.

Considering Colossians 1:3-8, for what does Paul give thanks?

Considering Colossians 1:9-12, what does Paul request from God for the Colossians?

Evaluate your own prayer life. For what kinds of things do you most thank God? For what kinds of things do you ask God?

Wellspring Kids Memory Verse:

Matthew 16:15-16

"He said to them, 'But who do you say that I am?'"

Simon Peter replied, 'You are the Christ, the Son of the living God.'"
