

Jesus' richness before His enemies' rankness

Luke 13:31-35

INTRODUCTION:

Luke 13:31-35 provides sinners with 4 stunning views of the richness of Jesus Christ as He is surrounded by the rankness of His enemies.

The setting (13:31): The rankness of Jesus' enemies.

- 1. The fearless King who unhurriedly overthrows Satan's dominion, 13:32.
- 2. The undeterred Prophet who doubtlessly approaches His death, 13:33.
- 3. The compassionate God who unquestionably leaves His enemies without excuse, 13:34.
- 4. The long-suffering Lord who finally will be worshiped at His second coming, 13:35.

CONCLUSION:

Is there a way from me (in all my rankness as a sinner) to Jesus in all His richness?
