

Psalm 16

In the face of imminent suffering, Christ set his heart on four objectives.

I. A continual confidence in God (v. 1-2)

A. As his refuge

1. By trusting God's word

2. By trusting God's character

B. As his Lord

II. An affectionate association with God's people (v. 3-4)

A. He delights in the saints

B. He despises idolaters

III. A superior allotment from God (v. 5-6)

A. God himself

B. Land in Israel

IV. A bold trust in God (v. 7-11)

A. For counsel (v. 7)

B. For help (v. 8-9a)

C. For life (v. 9b-11)
